To open this Memory Book with the class ring is appropriate for the ring is the symbol of unity and faith. A wedding ring represents the oneness of a man and woman and their fidelity to the marriage vows; the ring presented to a Religious designates a close union with Almighty God and fidelity to His love. In just the same way, this ring, the Senior Class Ring, signifies the unity of this Class of '63, and similarly the fidelity of each member to the Christian principles instilled at Marquette.

Mr. Lowell Brosamer, the senior boys' homeroom teacher, like all teachers who vie with Father Marquette (pictured in background), leads boys to manhood. Thomas Filardo, student council representative, and John Crivello, homeroom chairman represent the senior boys.

Madeleine Davey, secretary-treasurer of the student council, and John McConnell, vice-president, stand pictured with Marquette's principal, Mother Mary Ellen.
